

Position Title: Construction Safety Specialist

Application Deadline: August 20, 2021

Employment Status: Project Work in Saskatchewan

Position Summary:

The National Construction Safety Officer is a member whose primary responsibility is the oversight of client projects.

Essential Duties:

The successful individual will:

- Be responsible and accountable for knowing and working in accordance with ESSI Health and Safety Policies, while ensuring compliance with regulatory and industry policies, safe work practices, procedures and codes of practice.
- Provide coaching and support where needed with respect to safe work.
- Incident reporting, investigation, and follow up.
- Able to work at heights.
- Must be able to work flexible work hours, often away from home for extended durations. Travel is required as part of this position.

Qualifications:

- Current NCSO designation or equivalent.
- Standard First Aid with CPR.
- Fall Protection, Confined Space Entry and H2S Alive (preferred).
- Willingness to complete additional training and certification provided by Elite Safety Services Inc. as required.

Experience:

Ideal candidate will have experience with:

- Demonstrated years of experience in construction safety
- Experience in industrial construction, safety management systems, risk prevention
- Familiarity with preventing Serious injury or fatality (SIF's)
- Worksite inspections along with Incident investigations & reporting.
- Permit writing.
- Leading worksite safety meetings.

All staff working for Elite Safety Services Inc. are covered by our General Liability insurance policies and Manitoba WCB during assigned work.

Please send cover letter along with resume to work@elitesafetyservices.ca.

We thank you for your interest, however only those who are contacted will be considered. Any questions with regards to this position can be made by calling 877-726-9101.